

Rise Foundation e.V.

Internship in Marketing & Communications

Rise Foundation e.V. is dedicated to work towards the betterment of lives of the people who live on the streets. With our bi-weekly engagements, we distribute food, clothing, hygiene items to the homeless and help them with the information of regular places to sleep, eat, take showers, wash their clothes and get medical help etc.

How can you get involved?

We worked the whole last year with a lot of passion and support from the community. We are building our profile across Berlin and would like to get local businesses and corporations more engaged with this matter. Your role will include following tasks.

- Create social media content – from idea to campaign, from the photoshoot to the Instagram pictures.
- Organize information meetings amongst the volunteering committees
- Support the social media community of Rise Foundation
- Document the stories of the homeless people, create content around it

What awaits you?

Unfortunately, we are currently unable to provide reimbursement for internships, but we can offer you many other great opportunities:

- Become part of an exciting group which works on grassroot level to support the homeless in Berlin.
- Determine the focus of your work and incorporate your own ideas!
- Develop and use your skills while having a positive impact upon society!
- Enjoy flexibility in terms of location and working hours (to be agreed beforehand).
- Have fun, make new friends and get a certificate of employment at the end! ;)

Who are we looking for? We rely upon reliable and responsible members. You should also bring the following:

- Marketing Basics such as SEO.
- You like to research things.
- An interest in the topic of homelessness
- Self-Organization
- Good German, English– spoken and written.
